3. Dispositive Pretrial Motions

Dispositive motions, if any, seeking resolution, in whole or in part, of the issues to be raised at trial shall be served and filed on or before April 30, 2008. No pre-motion conference is required, but the parties must comply with the consultation and certification requirements of Paragraph 2.B. of the Individual Practices Rules of Judge Swain. If the movant believes the motion, if granted, would obviate entirely the necessity of a trial in this matter, the movant shall so state in a separate MOTION FOR STAY, which shall be served and filed with the moving papers, and may in such stay motion request that the Court defer the remaining requirements of this Order pending its decision on the dispositive motion. Unless the Court grants such stay motion, the filing of a dispositive motion does not affect the parties' obligations under this Order.

4. Other Pretrial Motions

Other motions, including but not limited to motions in limine relating to evidentiary issues, must be filed and served no later than October 14, 2008, unless otherwise allowed by the Court for good cause shown.

5. Preliminary Conference

Counsel for the parties shall confer preliminarily at least by September 30, 2008. At or prior to this preliminary conference, counsel shall provide copies of each proposed exhibit for inspection by opposing counsel and for waiver or noting of objection and shall make the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3). At the preliminary conference, counsel shall discuss (a) settlement, (b) any anticipated further motion practice, including motions in limine, and (c) the matters required to be addressed in their Joint Pretrial Statement, as set forth in paragraph 6 below.

6. Joint Pretrial Statement

Counsel for all parties shall confer and shall prepare, execute and file with the Court, with one courtesy copy provided to chambers of Judge Swain, no later than November 4, 2008, a single document captioned JOINT PRETRIAL STATEMENT, which shall include:

- a. A concise statement of the legal issues to be decided.
- b. A concise statement of the material facts not in dispute.
- c. A witness list containing the names, addresses and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness each party will call. A person not identified on this list may not be called during a party's case in chief.
- d. A final exhibit list in tabular form containing the following information for all exhibits to be offered at trial. Exhibits not identified on this list may not be offered during a party's case in chief. The format shall be substantially as illustrated below.

Exhibit Number or Letter	Description	Objection(s), if any	Status

- i. Plaintiff's exhibits shall be identified by numbers (e.g., Plaintiff's Exhibit 1, Plaintiff's Exhibit 2) and Defendant's Exhibits shall be identified by letters (e.g., Defendant's Exhibit A, Defendant's Exhibit B). If there is more than one Plaintiff or Defendant, the parties shall coordinate their designations so as to avoid duplication.
 - ii. In the "Objection(s)" column of the table, one asterisk should be entered to indicate exhibits to which no party objects on grounds of authenticity, and two asterisks should be entered to indicate exhibits to which no party objects on any ground. Any objections must be explained briefly, with citation to the relevant Federal Rule of Evidence or other legal authority.
 - iii. The "Status" column should be left blank, for later use by the Court.
- e. A list of the depositions, if any, to be offered at trial, with notation and explanation (including citation to the relevant legal authority) of any objections to the designations.
 - f. Stipulations, if any, as to the admissibility of exhibits and depositions.
 - g. Each party's statement as to whether the case is to be tried before a jury.
 - h. A statement as to whether or not all parties consent to trial of the case by a magistrate judge (without identifying which parties have or have not so consented).
 - i. Each party's estimate of the time required for presentation of its case.

When feasible, the Joint Pretrial Statement should also be submitted to Chambers on a CD-Rom in WordPerfect version 6 or higher format.

The following documents must be annexed to, or submitted to Chambers concurrently with, the Joint Pretrial Statement:

One copy of each documentary exhibit to be offered at trial. Such exhibits must be pre-marked. In the event that a party intends to offer more than 15 documentary exhibits at the trial, the exhibits should be tabbed and included in a binder for easy reference. On the day of trial, counsel shall bring additional pre-marked copies for use by witnesses, the courtroom deputy, the court reporter, opposing parties and (if applicable) the jury.

- b. When feasible, proposed voir dire, requests to charge and verdict forms shall also be submitted to Chambers on a CD-Rom in WordPerfect version 6 or higher format.

8. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

If the case is not to be tried before a jury, each party shall serve on each other party and file with the Court its proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall be broken down into separately enumerated paragraphs, no later than November 11, 2008. When feasible, the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law should also be submitted on a CD-Rom in WordPerfect version 6 or higher format.

9. Final Pretrial Conference

The parties are directed to appear before Judge Swain in Courtroom No. 17C¹, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007, for a final pretrial conference on December 5, 2008, at 4:00 p.m. The purpose of the conference is to explore the possibility of settlement, schedule the trial (which shall, the Court's calendar permitting, commence within two weeks after the conference) if necessary, to review the issues to be tried and the proof to be offered in connection therewith, and to resolve any remaining pretrial issues.

The counsel who plan to try the case must appear at such conference. Counsel attending the conference shall seek settlement authority from their respective clients prior to such conference. If counsel is not granted such authority, the client must be present in person or available by telephone so that a settlement can be consummated if possible.

"Settlement authority," as used in this order, includes the power to enter into stipulations and make admissions regarding all matters that the parties may reasonably anticipate discussing at the pretrial conference including, but not limited to, the matters enumerated in this Pretrial Scheduling Order.

¹On the day of the conference, check the electronic board in the lobby to be certain of the proper courtroom.

The Court will not adjourn the final pretrial conference or excuse the appearance of a party or its counsel unless a stipulation of settlement is on file prior to the pretrial conference date set forth in this paragraph 9.

10. No Adjournment of Deadlines

The deadlines set forth in this Pretrial Scheduling Order will not be adjourned except in the Court's discretion upon good cause as shown in a written application signed by both counsel and counsel's client and served upon all parties. "Good cause," as used in this paragraph, does not include circumstances within the control of counsel or the client.

11. Non-Compliance with This Order

In the event that any party fails to comply with this Pretrial Scheduling Order, or is not prepared to go forward with trial on the date scheduled, the Court may impose sanctions or take other action as appropriate. Such sanctions and action may include assessing costs and attorney's fees, precluding evidence or defenses, dismissing the action, granting judgment by default, and/or other appropriate penalties.

In particular, the parties are advised that the Court may, without further hearing, render judgment in favor of the adverse party if a party is not prepared to proceed to trial within two weeks of the scheduled final pretrial conference date.
